- Let us know if you got any tough questions that would be helpful to add to our materials for speakers
- Summarize evaluations and share learnings with others on your team
 - The TCP team would love to know, also!
- Update your newsletter or social media accounts with photos and a brief write up the conversation project

Rather than packing up materials for each event, Conversation Project champions in Boulder County has a rolling milk crate (sold in many office supply stores) with the following items:

- Blank nametags and a marker
- Sign in sheets and pen (ask for everyone's email address)
- Acrylic flyer stand for details about upcoming events and a spot for business cards
- Business cards
- Donation envelopes
- 3-4 laminated 8.5"x11" signs that say "Conversation Project Event This Way" with blank space below
 - Dry erase marker for drawing arrows or writing room numbers on the signage
 - Masking tape for placing these signs at various points along the way to your event space
- Their own laptop and speakers
- A simple, easy-to-use projector they bring with them to each event (as sometimes they present at venues without tech support)
- An extension cord for their projector (pay attention to if you'll need 2 or 3 prongs)
- Light refreshments, beverages, and napkins. Their signature item is oatmeal cookies!
